THE CITY OF FORT WAYNE

March 29, 1974

Common Council
City of Fort Wayne

Gentlemen and Mrs. Schmidt:

I want to thank you for calling this special session of the Common Council.

The ordinance that is before you is extremely important to the entire Northeast area of Indiana. This Manpower Plan which was devised through the cooperative efforts of seven counties is a singular accomplishment. Not only does it demonstrate that governmental jurisdictions can get together and can plan, it also is one of the first concentrated demonstrations of the "New Federalism."

Your willingness to take time from your own work and businesses shows your outstanding sensitivity to the needs of our community.

Your affirmative action on this ordinance will allow more than $2 million to come into the region to help solve some of our problems of unemployment and under employment.

Sincerely,

Ivan A. Lebamoff, Mayor
